

Bank Charter for The Global Family Bank, a Private International Trade Bank
Established by The United States of America, an Unincorporated
Federation of our Sovereign States of the Union since 1776; and The Global Family Bank of Commerce, an associated Commercial Institution

Mission Statement

It is the mission of The Global Family Bank to provide Good Faith Service, Asset Protection, Access to Banking Services, and Access to Relief from Public Debt to all Lawful Persons worldwide, and specifically we are creating this bank for the relief of individual living people, their families, their unincorporated business enterprises, and their hometown communities. The Global Family Bank is created to remove artificial obstructions to international trade and private business transactions and is designed as a Global Private Network Bank, which will serve as a service conduit and resource for all similar Private International Trade Banks organized to serve Lawful Persons in every country worldwide. While The Global Family Bank is empowered to transact Accounts in Lawful Money, it is also empowered to distribute and transact pre-paid Credit and similar Cash-Value Assets, issue American Credit Certificates, and engage in the creation of Lawful Currency Standards.

Whereas our members are all Lawful Persons established on the land and soil of their respective unincorporated States of the Union and they are desirous of means to trade among the States and Nations of the world, and whereas our population similarly is endowed with the right and desire to conduct trade with the peoples of similarly endowed States and Nations throughout the world, we do ordain, establish, and construct The Global Family Bank to serve as a Private International Trade Bank and provide for its Administration.

- (24) All activities of The Global Family Bank stand under the Public Law of The United States of America and are not subject to foreign intervention or substitution of law;
- (25) All activities of The Global Family Bank are private in nature and exercised under Public Law and our bank services are rendered on the land and soil jurisdiction of the respective countries where Sister Banks are established by Bank Treaty for the Good Faith Service, Protection, and Care of all Lawful Persons and the living people and unincorporated businesses that wish to engage in peaceful and honest International Trade.
- (26) The Global Family Bank is owned, operated, and chartered by The United States of America, our unincorporated Federation of States, for the lawful purposes herein outlined and which may in future be adopted;

These Fundamental Articles of Corporation and our Mission Statement provide the skeletal structure for The Global Family Bank; these Articles may be Amended directly as provided for by the Master Account Holders.

Day to day operations will be set up and maintained by the Comptrollers and will be overseen by the Fiduciaries. Total Operational Oversight will be maintained by the Bank Stewards and The Office of the Fiduciary for The United States of America.

The operations of this bank are to be global in scope, private in nature, and within the sphere of international trade. Banks of every other country organized on this same basis and within this same jurisdiction are invited to sign our Universal Bank Treaty Agreement and Management Protocols to allow establishment of facilities and services for their populations as part of a new global network of banks and cash credit facilities designed to serve living people and small businesses.

As each National Family Bank is established it will have access to the rest of The Global Family Bank network and all the services of the network.

The Global Family Bank is responsible for administering settlement of pre-paid credit and discharging Public Debt, assisting and educating National Account Holders to develop an array of compatible services, assisting Master Account

Holdings to make the most of their account services, and paving the way for peaceful and honest trade among the people of many diverse countries worldwide.

To round out the full field of services that are accessible by private international trade banks, The Global Family Bank will create and maintain a subsidiary bank, The Global Family Bank of Commerce, to directly serve incorporated customer accounts and to provide a safe and active interface between public and private enterprise functions.

The Global Family Bank of Commerce will be managed in the same way as The Global Family Bank, with the exception that associated accounts will be designated as Commercial Accounts and Master Account Holders who wish to obtain Commercial Account services will be required to register a State Corporation to set up this interface.

State Corporations must record their names, business addresses, type of business, place of business, in-state or interstate business status, the names and addresses of at least three Officers: Chief Executive Officer, Secretary, and Treasurer, and Articles of Incorporation that support the Public Good and include appropriate lawful purposes language. State Corporations are by nature beneficial and not restricted to profit accrual for shareholders.

National Bank Accounts/National Account Holders:

- (A) National Account Holder Banks undertake to provide unobstructed service to all people living within their borders of their country regardless of racial or religious differences;
- (B) National Account Holder Banks agree to abide by and adopt the Universal Bank Treaty and Management Protocols;
- (C) National Account Holder Banks are responsible for creating and maintaining a compatible system of oversight using Comptrollers, Fiduciaries, and Stewards to provide complete security of accounts and account information.

The Global Family Bank of Commerce:

- (I) The Global Family Bank of Commerce is organized as an interface for the State Assemblies and similar sovereign Body Politics in diverse countries to conduct commercial business and to provide across the board service to Master Account Holders who establish incorporated businesses under State or equivalent auspices;

- (II) The Global Family Bank of Commerce will be a direct subsidiary of The Global Family Bank and will share the same oversight system;
- (III) Commercial Accounts of The Global Family Bank of Commerce will be kept separate from International Trade Accounts and will be run through The Global Family Bank of Commerce, though they may appear on a merged ledger spread sheet for the convenience of Master Account Holders;
- (IV) All transaction information for both international trade accounts and commercial accounts will be block-chained and transparent upon decryption;
- (V) Participation in The Global Family Bank and The Global Family Bank of Commerce is a privilege and may be revoked if any National Account Holder Bank or individual Master Account Holder knowingly engages in criminal activity related to our banks or our banking services.
- (VI) All associated International Trade Banks stand under the Public Law and are not subject to administration by Municipal Agencies or Territorial Personnel; all funds being transferred into, within, or issued from Master Accounts in The Global Family Bank are automatically denominated as lawful money;
- (VII) All wholly-owned subsidiary Commercial Banks are obligated to honor lawful as well as legal standards in their administration of negotiable instruments and will, generally speaking, be allowed to convert negotiable instruments into lawful money via their partnership with our International Trade Banks;
- (VIII) Our International Trade Banks will similarly be enabled to convert physical assets into negotiable instruments and currencies via their subsidiary relationship with their own partnered Commercial Bank.
- (IX) Any bank, whether a commercial bank or international trade bank in our bank network, that engages in predatory loan practices, fails to give full disclosure, uses unconscionable contracting practices, blind assignments, impersonation, or otherwise seeks to benefit itself at the cost of the living people, or engages in any criminal activity contrary to the Public Good, will be liquidated as a pre-condition of every bank charter and bank treaty in our bank network;
- (X) The Global Family Bank will work with National Treasuries to the extent that such efforts are mutually beneficial and promote the security, happiness, and well-being of living people of all nations worldwide;

- (XI) Both The Global Family Bank and The Global Family Bank of Commerce are established for lawful purposes; whether in trade, or in commerce, the explicit purpose of our network of banks is to function as an instrument of peace and well-being, security, progress, opportunity, and justice for all people.
- (XII) In all functions and all venues, at all times, and in all ways, our network banks are to be devoted to serving living people, reducing debt, increasing abundance, educating people about money, opening up beneficial investment opportunities, and providing secure transaction and transfer services;
- (XIII) All assignments must be fully disclosed and expressly stipulated in writing--- no assumed assignments nor floating, unallocated, or non-consensual assignments are allowed;
- (XIV) The United States of America retains all right, title and interest in its assets and their administration;
- (XV) The Office of the Fiduciary of The United States of America is and remains the Final Arbiter of all disputes arising under this charter and provides overall program guidance and oversight for the banks, treaties, and network of banks thus established:
